HEALTHCARE SERVICES

SUPPLEMENT

Contributions are tax-deductible, earnings are tax-deferred, and qualified withdrawals are tax-free.

Pay for covered expenses that apply toward your deductible and pay for medical expenses your plan my not cover.

Use your funds when expenses arise, or let your money continue to grow over the years for future expenses.

A major expense to most retirees is medical expenses. You can use your HSA for medical expenses instead of your reitrement income.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ)

1. WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR AN HSA?

You must be enrolled in High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) and must NOT be participating in one of the following benefit programs: Medicare/Medicaid, Health Flexible Spending Account, covered under another health insurance plan, and/or receiving VA benefits in the past 3 months.

2. CAN I OPEN A SEPARATE HSA FOR MY SPOUSE IF WE HAVE FAMILY COVERAGE?

Yes, if your spouse meets the eligibility requirements in the question above. However, the maximum that you can contribute to both accounts cannot exceed the annual limits.

3. WHAT HAPPENS IF I LEAVE GUAM?

Your HSA is transferable from one HSA provider to another if you leave Guam; you can rollover your HSA balance to another HSA provider. If you prefer, you can always maintain your HSA account with ASC and use your HSA Debit Card wherever you go.

YOUR HSA BASICS

How to qualify for a HSA?

HSAs are available to you if you:

1) Have coverage under a qualifying "high-deductible health plan (HDHP); 2) Have no other primary health insurance coverage or Health Flexible Savings Account;

3) Are not enrolled in Medicare or Medicaid; and 4) Cannot be claimed as dependent on someone else's tax return.

Tax Reporting

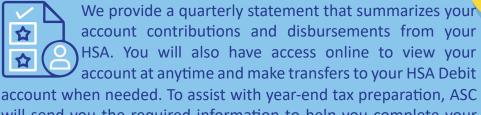

You declare your HSA contributions as a tax deduction when you file your taxes at the end of the year. However, if your employer has a Cafeteria Plan (aka Flexible Benefit Plan) that includes HSA, you can have your HSA contributions deducted pre-tax from your paycheck.

Tax Deductions

Contributions to an HSA are tax-deductible. The contribution limit is $4,400 if you have single coverage in 2026 ($4,300 in 2025). The deduction limit is $8,750 if you have family coverage in 2026 ($8,550 in 2025). You can make an additional $1,000 catch-up contribution if you're age 55 or older.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who is eligible for an HSA?

You must be enrolled in a High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) and must NOT be participating in one of the following benefit programs:

- Medicare or Medicaid
- Health Flexible Spending Account
- Covered under another major health insurance plan (including Tricare)
- > Receiving or have received VA benefits in the past 3 months

Can I still contribute up to the maximum even though I enrolled in the HDHP in the middle of the year?

Yes, but you must remain in the HDHP for a full year and maintain eligibility as described in Q1 above.

Can I open a separate HSA for my spouse if we have family coverage?

Yes, if your spouse meets the eligibility requirements in Q1 above. However, the maximum that you can contribute to both accounts cannot exceed the annual limits.

What kind of tax savings can I expect?

It depends on your tax rate. For example, if your tax rate is 20% and you contribute $5,000 into your HSA, you will save $1,000 in taxes. The higher your tax rate, the greater the tax savings. If your employer has a Section 125 Cafeteria Plan, you may be able to have your HSA contributions deducted before taxes.

How do I withdraw money from my HSA?

After completing the Debit Card Application, you will receive a free ASC HSA Debit Card from BankPacific with a minimum $25.00 deposit. You can use the card to pay for your healthcare expenses or you can cut checks from your ASC HSA Debit Card account. The HSA Debit Card is a VISA card, which means you can use it all over the world at any healthcare-related merchant that accepts VISA. You may also request for a distribution check from ASC but additional fees apply.

Can I lose the money in my HSA if I don't use it to pay for medical expenses?

No. There is no "use it or lose it" clause. Any money leftover in your account at the end of the year rolls over year after year until you are ready to withdraw it, even if you are no longer participating in an HDHP.

What happens if I leave Guam?

Your HSA is transferable from one HSA provider to another. If you leave Guam, you can rollover your HSA balance to another HSA provider. If you prefer, you can always maintain your HSA account with ASC and use your HSA Debit Card wherever you go.

How can I find out my account balance and see my account activity?

ASC's website (www.asctrust.com) will show your HSA activity and BankPacific's website (www.bankpacific.com) will show details on your Debit Card transactions. You will also receive quarterly statements from ASC and monthly statements from BankPacific. In addition to checking your account balance, you can also make changes and transfer money between your investment elections though ASC's website.

Frequently Asked Questions

What happens if I don't re-enroll in an HDHP or I become ineligible for an HSA?

If you do not meet the eligibility requirements that are outlined in Q1, you must stop contributing to your HSA. However, you can keep your HSA for as long as you want and continue to make tax-free withdrawals to pay for healthcare expenses.

Do I need to include any special tax forms when filing my taxes?

Yes. You must file a Form 8889 with your tax return (Form1040). Form 8889 is used to report all contributions and withdrawals from your HSA for the tax year. We will provide you with the information and assistance you need to complete the Form 8889 each year.

What happens to my HSA if I should pass away?

When you open your HSA, you will be asked to provide a primary and secondary beneficiary. You can change your beneficiaries at anytime, however, additional documents may be required for certain situations.
